

SOUTH-EAST FACULTY OF CLINICAL EDUCATORS
MEDICAL EDUCATION SYMPOSIUM
Wednesday, 16th November 2016
Chancellor's Building, Little France, Edinburgh

What do patients really want from healthcare?

Why does this matter in medical education?

- 12.30 Lunch (Seminar Room 2/Undergraduate Medical Teaching Room)
- 1.15 Doctor in the House (clip from BBC Television Series)
- 1.30 Welcome and introduction (Prof Morwenna Wood, Director of Medical Education, NHS Fife; Chair of SEFCE Board)
- 1.45 Presentation of 2016 SEFCE Awards
- Clinical Educator of the Year
 - Young Clinical Educator of the Year
 - Personal Tutor of the Year
 - Clinical Tutor Associate of the Year
- Presentation of Clinical Educator Programme Level 3 Certificates
- 2.00 Plenary Lecture – Dr Rangan Chatterjee
- 3.00 Q&A
- 3.15 Break
- 3.30 Discussion sessions (Strict limit on session capacity.)
1. The great divide? Perspectives on Mental and Physical Health
Prof Stephen Lawrie, Professor of Psychiatry and Head of Division of Psychiatry, University of Edinburgh, Honorary Consultant Psychiatrist
 2. Dr Who? Public and Personal Perceptions of the Good Doctor
Martina Balaam and Dr Katy Rankin, Fellows in Medical Education, Edinburgh Medical School
 3. What Patients Can Teach Us About Empathy
Kirsty Egan, Edinburgh Patient Partnership Programme Coordinator, Dr Shaun Qureshi, Medical Education Fellow, Edinburgh Medical School and Simulated and Real Patients
 4. Realistic Medicine: Work-Life Balance and Professionalism in Modern Healthcare
Dr Ahmed Kazmi, Practicing GP and stand-up comedian
 5. Should lifestyle approaches be integrated into the MBChB, and if so how?
Jason Young, Alexandra Morgan, Michael Dias and Oliver Vick, Royal Medical Society
 6. Mind Body Practices in Medical Education
Lorraine Close, Clinical Skills Facilitator and Edinburgh Medical Students
- 4.15 Closing plenary Share key messages from discussion sessions (What is working well? What could be done differently?)
- 5.00pm Close

Who's Who Event (all SEFCE Symposium attendees invited)
Anatomy Lecture Theatre, Teviot Place

<http://www.ed.ac.uk/medicine-vet-medicine/edinburgh-medical-school/staff-students/whos-who>

- | | |
|--------|--|
| 6.30pm | Staff and Students Drinks & Buffet |
| 7.00pm | Who's Who prize giving – prizes presented by Professor David Kluth |
| 7.30pm | Ahmed Kazmi Comedy Show |